

Topic:
Archetype Notes
Parts One and Two

Name: _____

Class: _____ Period: _____

Date: _____

Questions/ Main Ideas

Archetypes – Part One

archetype - characters, images, plot patterns or themes that are _____ (familiar) to human experiences across _____ and throughout time.

folklore - consists of _____,
_____, _____,
_____, _____, _____,
_____, _____, & customs that are the
_____ of a culture, _____, or _____.

epic - is traditionally a _____ of poetry, known as _____
_____. However in modern terms, epic is often extended to other art forms, such as _____
_____ where the story is centered on _____ characters, and the action takes place on a grand scale.

legend - is a _____ of human actions that are perceived both by teller and listeners to take place within _____ and to possess certain qualities that give the tale _____ - ("_____ " is a likeness or resemblance of the truth). The _____ defined legend _____
_____.

myth - is a _____ usually explaining how the world or humankind came to be in its present form, although, in a very broad sense, the word can refer to any _____.

oral tradition - cultural material and _____ transmitted orally from one _____ to another.

culture - the cultivation of individuals through the agency of external forms which have been _____ in the course of history. Objectification is the process by which an _____ concept is made as objective as possible in the purest sense of the term.

Summary:

Archetypes – Part Two

hero or heroine - _____ who, in the face of danger and adversity or from a position of weakness, display _____ and the will for _____ - that is, heroism—for some _____.

character archetype - refers to a _____ version of a personality.

- A _____ - a personality type observed multiple times, especially an _____ of such a type.
- An _____ - a personality type exemplified, especially the "greatest" such example.

tragic flaw – _____ or personal _____. Often leads to a downfall.

epic hero –

legendary hero –

Character Archetype Examples: Choose at least seven of these archetypes and give an example from literature or film.

The Child –

The Devil or Satan –

The Hero –

The Fool or Scarecrow –

The Martyr –

The Mentor –

The Great Mother –

The Warrior –

The Wise old (wo)man or Sage –

The Star-crossed lovers –

The Damsel in distress –

The Outcast –

The Trickster or Fox –

The Nagging wife -

image archetype –

plot –

plot pattern archetype –

theme archetype –