TEKS 19.11.A-Students will reflect on understanding to monitor comprehension by asking questions, summarizing and synthesizing, making connections or creating sensory images.

TEKS 11.19.B-Students will make complex inferences about a text and use textual evidence to support understanding.

TEKS 11.3.A-Students will analyze the effects of metrics, scheme schemes and other conventions in American poetry.

Poem Read the following poem, define the vocabulary words and determine the rhyme scheme; then reread the poem and take notes on the right.	My Notes
If ever two were one, then surely we. If ever man were loved by wife, then thee; If ever wife was happy in a man, Compare with me, ye women, if you can. I prize thy love more than whole mines of gold Or all the riches that the East doth hold. My love is such that rivers cannot quench, Nor ought but love from thee, give recompense. Thy love is such I can no way repay, The heavens reward thee manifold, I pray. Then while we live, in love let's so persevere That when we live no more, we may live evermore.	Vocabulary:
